

Hamilton

Hamilton Municipal Heritage Committee

2011

“Energy Conservation in Heritage Award”

This award is presented to property owners demonstrating outstanding contributions to the conservation, restoration and preservation of Hamilton’s built heritage, while incorporating sustainable concepts with a high regard for energy conservation

The Hamilton Municipal Heritage Committee recognizes

EcoHouse

Operated by Green Venture
22 VeEVERS Drive, Stoney Creek, Ontario

Also known as “James Dean House”, “Glen Manor”, “VeEVERS Estate” and “Glendale Dairy”
(Built in 1850, Designated in 1994)

Demonstrating excellence in the conservation, restoration and preservation of Hamilton’s built heritage in a sustainable manner, including energy conservation through the installation of roof top solar panels.

February 23, 2012
Date

Alissa Denham-Robinson, Chair